Tina
Dakrady

Elizabeth,
Those long days in math and English are almost over! Just the exams are left the summer is near. Hope you have a good one see ya next year.
Chuck

Elizabeth, I really missed seeing you as much as I did last year. It was great, with Dolly and Paulette. And Ross and the Golden Eagle Motor Inn (Ha! Ha!) Anyway, we probably won't have many classes next year either.

Elizabeth,
home-room was so much fun w/ Mrs Cox - you got to take the notes everyday!
(fun!) have a good summer! when you go over to Patti's walk over w/ her.

Debbie Brown

I hope we can get together this summer.

We ought to do something for Patti's birthday, like take her out to lunch
downtown or something.
Have fun at the barn this summer!

Friends always,
Belia

Elizabeth,
I am so glad I got to meet you this year, and to meet you never would have been the same without our "secretary"! I hope we see each other over the summer!
Have a great summer,
Shelly M.

Elizabeth, Boy this year was great with Dyna and Frank, even though I am failing out of French this term. I'm going to practice gum softly and next year I think again I am going to try to get on her good side so that maybe she'll bring the trash can up to my like that Frank does to her favorites! I hope she'll always have a chance to give you at least one bad little girl! (you always cause get in gym with such a bad things in Dyna's class.) I hope we have some without them were good. I hope we have some next year, and maybe this summer.
 Sorry this is so messy but I am walking.
 L.Y.L.A.S.
 Carey

 more medals
 this summer.

 the car. I hope we have some classes together next year, have fun this summer! Love, Tracy

Dedication

unity makes strength, and, since we must be strong, we must also be one."

Herrn Herzog Friedrich von Baden

On September 24, 1979, Charlotte Country Day School and Carmel Academy officially merged to form a powerful institution. Since then, despite initial apprehension, the two old schools have united in every way. The new Charlotte Country Day School is a strong union; old traditions have combined to create new ones. We now have a diverse and large student body, an excellent faculty, two campuses with excellent facilities, new sports, and a new mascot, the Buccaneer.

Since the past year has been one of new traditions and new ideas, the POSTSCRIPT Staff has a unique dedication. The POSTSCRIPT theme is designed to reflect on the past year, so it symbolizes the old schools combined to form a new one. The black and white pictures in the first sixteen pages represent the old days of the Rebels and the Cavaliers. The bright color pictures display our new and united school.

So, instead of choosing one of our distinguished faculty members (all of whom well deserve it), the POSTSCRIPT Staff is pleased to dedicate the 1981 POSTSCRIPT to the memories of the old and to the exciting visions of the new union—Charlotte Country Day School.

The Buccaneers reeled off nine consecutive victories after a rainy night opening loss, only to fall to Raleigh Ravenscroft 15-14 in the state semifinal game. Among the highlights of the season was a crucial 19-16 homecoming victory over rival Charlotte Latin, and a 24-16 win over long-time rival Charlotte Catholic, in a typically exciting Country Day-Catholic game.

Country Day was led by Co-Captains Lee Vaughn, a key offensive lineman, and Al Dickens, quarterback, finishing his fourth year at varsity level. Other outstanding players include seniors Will Underwood, Phil Hess, Steve Peterson, and Tad Porter; juniors David Dooley, Phil Lane, Mike Cofer, and Wayne Dixon, and a strong sophomore force up from last year's junior varsity team.

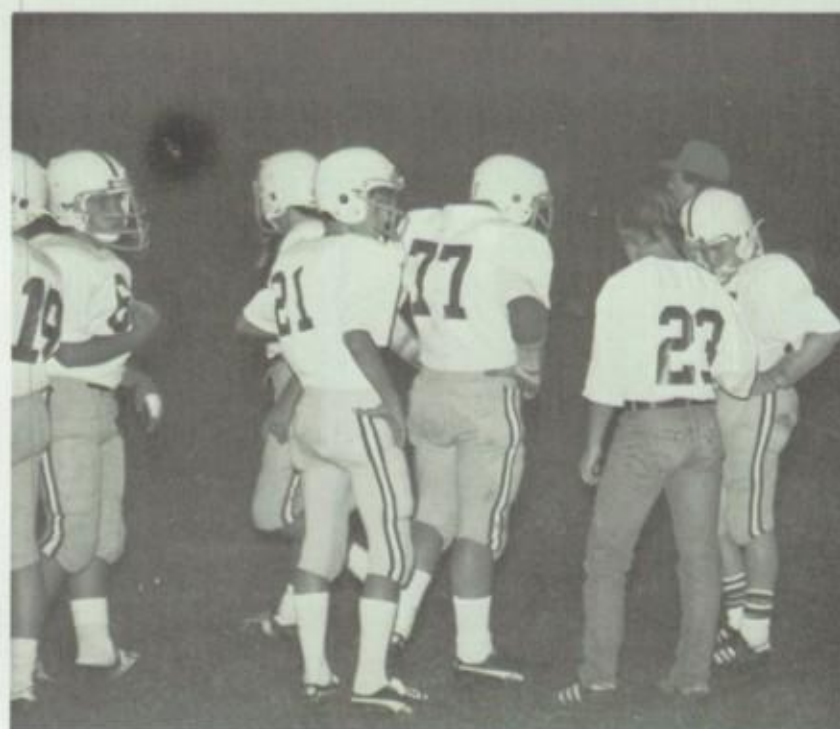

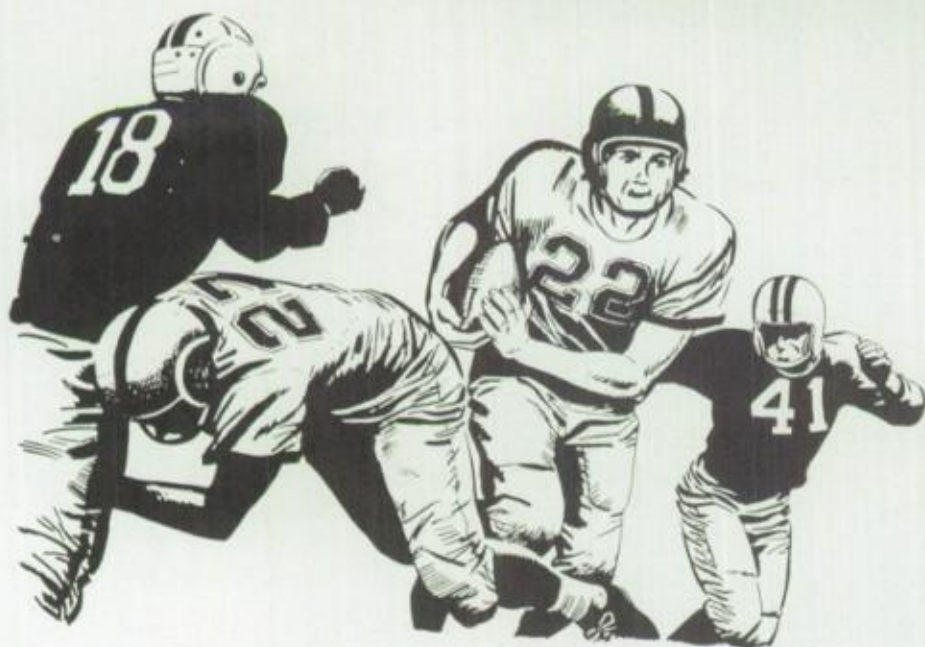

The 1980 Country Day Football team was a talented, very determined group, and one whose hard practicing and spirited attitude led them to an excellent season.

JULIET IN MANTUA

JULIET IN MANTUA

With vitality, spunk, and much nerve, the Drama Club performed Robert Nathan's JULIET IN MANTUA this past fall. The action of the play took place ten years after Shakespeare's ROMEO AND JULIET ends. In Nathan's play, however, the ill-fated couple did not manage to die. Instead they set up housekeeping in Mantua where conflicts with in-laws add to the confusion and fun in their lives. Many hours of practice, preparation, and devotion on the part of the actors, actresses, back-stage crew, and directors resulted in a play that was well-received by all who attended. Sparkling and authentic costumes enhanced the atmosphere of the play and brought to life at Country Day the days of Shakespeare if only for a couple of evenings.

Christmas Program 1980

To celebrate the Christmas Season, a combined effort of the various areas of the Fine Arts Department presented a program for the enjoyment of the entire school. Mr. Gary Forbis led the instrumental group as they performed selections of Christmas caroles. Mr. Lowry was the director of the vocal portion of the program in which the mixed choir and girls' ensemble presented an impressive program of Christmas music. Under the guidance of Mayreese Koraly, a group of girls danced to a cantata of song sung by the mixed choir. In all, the program was one that put everyone in the holiday spirit and displayed the many talents of everyone involved.

Mime At Country Day — Mr. James Donlin

In an attempt to familiarize high school students with careers in the Fine Arts, Mr. Rob Williams, head of the arts department invited America's most renowned mime, James Donlin, to perform at Country Day during winter term. In the assembly which took place in the gym, Mr. Donlin began his act with impressionistic movements using masks and then did a variety of traditional silent skits, mimicking things from clowns to fish. Mr. Donlin explained each of his actions before he did them, lectured briefly on the history of the mime, and told the students of his work in the art in order to promote understanding of and interest in professional acting. The K-4 students, who were also present, particularly enjoyed the mime's circus skit and skillful use of crowd participation. All of the students present benefited from the show, and many hope to see it repeated next year.

French and Spanish Plays

On December 16, the CCDS Society of the Arts put on a one-act play called "La Meleta Esta Hecha" or "The Suitcase is Packed." It was written in Spanish by Senior Cary Svich, and it dealt with the conflict among three Argentine women living in Baltimore, Maryland, to fulfill the American Dream. The women were portrayed by Alice Griffen, Lisa Bowers, and Cary Svich. The production was directed by Mr. Win Robinson under the Foreign Language Association, which is responsible for the staged poems, folklore, and dance of other cultures.

In the fall, several of the French classes were enhanced by brief but interesting plays which were presented during the class period. One such play was put on by Betsy Downs and Jessie Tomlinson. Betsy played the part of a passenger booking a flight on an airlines and Jessie was in the role of the air travel agent. The script was done entirely in French, and the skits helped the students to see the French language being used in a practical situation.

The 1980-1981 Dance Company had an eventful year. In the fall, seven of the dancers went to Winston-Salem to represent dance at the high school level across the state. During February, the Company presented a lecture demonstration for the Middle School. The group enjoyed a performance and master classes held by the Martha Graham Company when they appeared in Charlotte. Finally, at the spring concert, The Dance Company presented a variety of works choreographed by Mayreese Koraly, Rob Williams, and Amy Fonville.

Fine Arts Open House

Fine Arts Open House

On February 4, 5, 6, the Fine Arts Department invited the faculty to come to a variety of classes and observe the activities. The purpose of this experiment was to let the rest of the school know what goes on in the Fine Arts Building, which tends to be overlooked due to its seclusion from the regular classrooms. Students were seen taking part in both lecture and studio courses in clay, printmaking, dance, music, fibers, photography, and painting. Beth Barclay, upper school art teacher, commented on the success of the project when she mentioned that some of the other departments are planning similar open houses. She also noted that the teachers of other subjects should realize that the material covered in Fine Arts courses often overlaps that taught in the more traditional subjects, and the alternate view of the same matter is helpful to both students and teachers.

Veronica's Room

On February 27 and 28, 1981, the drama department presented its second production of the year, Veronica's Room. This play was written by Ira Levin, the author of such works as Rosemary's Baby, The Stepford Wives, and The Boys from Brazil.

Four students participated as characters in this production: Will Fox played the part of a doctor (everyone enjoyed seeing Will in a fake mustache; Mark Falls effectively played the part of an Irish gardener; Karen Smith was the gardener's strange wife (notice the picture of Karen talking to a chair); and Bonnie Woods played the part of a coed at Boston University who, unfortunately, bore a striking resemblance to a girl named Veronica.

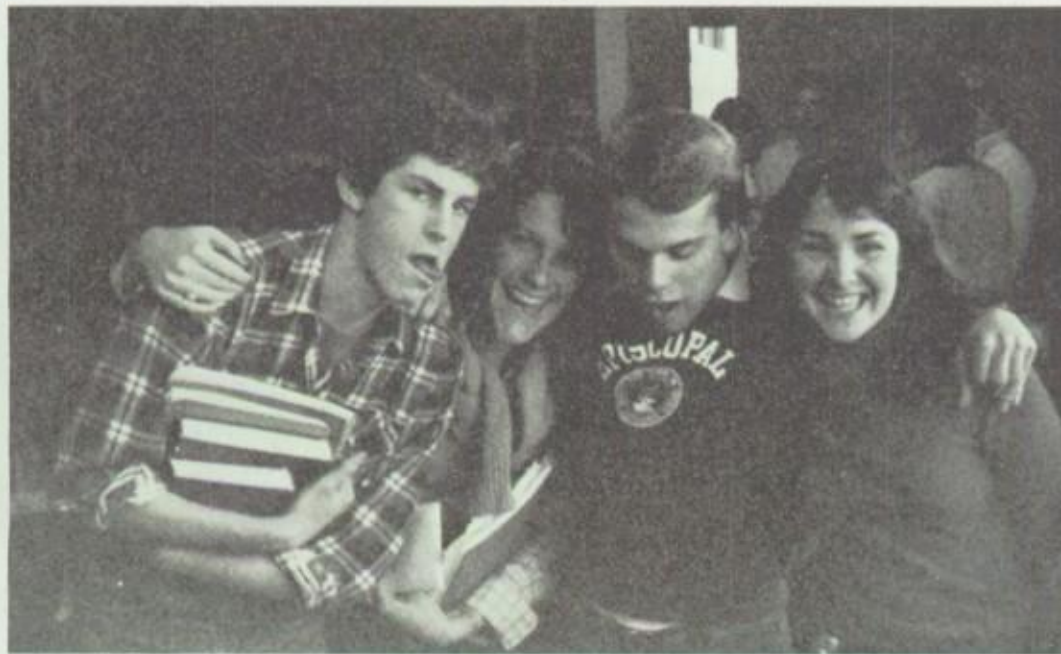

The plot of this play revolved around murder, but a murder with a curious twist. Instead of trying to figure out who the murderer was, the audience was constantly pondering why the murder was committed.

Will, Mark, Karen and Bonnie put many hours of practice and hard work into this production. They were aided by many hours of directing and supervision by Mr. Christie and much help from Emily Ayscue. Everyone who attended this performance agreed that it was a sample of quality entertainment which the drama department is more than capable of providing.

The 1980-81 Upper School Student Council was a "merger" of students elected last spring on both campuses and consisted of three representatives from each grade plus the Executive Council.

In order to reach its goals during the busy school year, the Council met every Sunday afternoon. Some of the year's accomplishments include: a Homecoming weekend consisting of athletic events; Homecoming Court, and a dance; a magazine sale that sold over $9,000 in subscriptions and raised over $3600; contributing to the Charlotte News Empty Stocking Fund; revising the Constitution; renovating the snack bar; Town meetings; questionnaires; a Christmas party for the kindergarten; Upper School dances; carnations days; and Spring Campus Beautification. In all, the Student Council was very active and helped to make 1980-81 successful.

Biochemists for years have believed that the first amino acid on earth was made as lightening flashed across the primitive earth's atmosphere causing this atmosphere  $\text{NH}_3$ - ammonia,  $\text{CH}_4$ - methane, and  $\text{H}_2$ - hydrogen to form the compounds. Recent knowledge has made scientists believe that the primitive atmosphere was composed of  $\text{CO}_2$  (carbon dioxide) and  $\text{N}_2$  (nitrogen) and water vapor. Reduced iron ions (which presumable came from the then plentiful volcanoes) acted as the reducing agent and, from this mixture, the first amino acid may have been made. This theory has not been tested, however. This is what our research team is working on.

ACTIVITIES

School-in-the Woods

During October, 1980, the seventh graders traveled to Camp Thunderbird to spend a week known as School-in-the-Woods. The entire grade of 157 students and every teacher that has taught them this year were included. They participated in many activities both academic and extracurricular. Outward Bound-type events were the main part of the program. They walked ropes that dangled 30 feet high and scaled 15 foot high walls. A highlight of the week was a zip wire that the students were fastened to. They then flew across the wire 25 feet above the lake. At night there were square dances and other get-togethers. The adventure has been called by many the best school week they ever spent.

Halloween Parade

Can you remember when there was no Halloween parade? Not many people can! The lower school Halloween parade, one of Country Day's oldest traditions, was a huge success this year. The parade's history dates back to 1948, when a handful of first and second graders donned costumes and marched around the school. This year's parade, with almost 100% participation of the kindergarten through fourth grades, included close to 500 students plus teachers and some of the members of the Aquilifer service club. Later that day, the lower school students put on a performance in the Fine Arts Theater to finish off the Halloween Day festivities.

HOMECOMING 1980

No doubt Homecoming weekend was one of the Fall term highlights, and credit for much of the success of that week should go not only to powerful athletic teams but also to an active student council. The council sponsored "Spirit Week" festivities and the culminating homecoming dance.

Laura Taft was crowned homecoming queen by last year's homecoming queens, Sissy Pappas and Karen Culbreth. Laura's court consisted of Catherine Martin and Margaret Martin (freshmen), Sara Smith and Teresa Miller (sophomores), Suci Roddey and Sharon Brown (juniors), and Meg Foley, Lynn Day, and Melinda Hardin (seniors).

The Senior Class demonstrated the most spirit during the week and was rewarded with a half day off in December.

Athletically, the homecoming weekend could not have been better. The football team defeated Latin 19-16 in the rain, a game that led to a state playoff entry. The soccer team won 3-1 over Ben Lippen, a school that was previously undefeated and ranked sixth in the state. The volleyball team defeated Salem Academy, the field hockey team won the Deep South tournament, and the girls' tennis team finished fourth in the state tournament.

After the Ben Lippen game Saturday, the Student Council put on a well-attended dance in the Carmel Campus gymnasium. The theme, "Homecoming on the Range," was western and included a shootout staged by some local "cowboys." A band, Franklin Hammer, provided music for the dance. The council sold corsages and tickets before the dance, which encouraged attendance. Alumni from both campuses from five years back were invited to the festivities. All of the work of the council was aimed at establishing a Homecoming tradition at Country Day. Shown in the picture of the Homecoming Court are the following: Standing Left to Right: Sharon Brown, Suci Roddey, Teresa Miller, Sara Smith, Catherine Martin, Margaret Martin. Seated: Meg Foley, Queen Laura Taft, Melinda Hardin. Not pictured: Lynn Day.

The Holly Shop

With the merger of the two schools, came a new Christmas tradition. The Holly Shop, held at the Carmel campus gym, was a tremendous success. Included in the shop was a coffee booth, a bake sale, a live wreath sale and numerous handcrafted items to be bought. There were many younger children doing their Christmas shopping. They were provided with free wrapping for all the packages and gifts they had most carefully purchased. Between two and three hundred people attended the celebration. Nearly 5,000 dollars profit was made. The Holly Shop was an excellent way to begin the Christmas holiday and everyone is looking forward to this new tradition next year.

Saint Catherine's Day

Saint Catherine is the patron saint of seamstresses and unmarried ladies over 25. In France, each year on her day, November 25, special parades are held. The participants wear hats of their own creation to publicize the fact that they are looking for a husband. They march through the streets to a local church or square where the statue of Saint Catherine stands. Once there they put their hats on and march around the statue. That evening dances are held and the same young ladies attend, hoping to find an eligible bachelor.

Mrs. Beatty's French II class celebrated this occasion in a festive way. Each member brought authentic French dishes that included: Chocolate Mousse, croissants, eclairs and meringues. French parties with Mrs. Beatty are definitely the best in the school. They are well worth the class time spent preparing for these feasts.

Very studious!

Elizabeth.
 sorry we don't have any classes together this year. maybe next year we'll have some. I wonder how Knibbey is, or Mr. Hippie. Well, have a nice summer.
 love,
 Karen P.S. Keep in touch.

The staff would like to thank the following people for their aid in producing the 1981 POSTSCRIPT: Mr. Droescher and Cathy Wright for their pictures; Mr. Charles White for his pictures and many nights in the darkroom; Mr. Trendel, Carol Carter, and Sharon Lassiter for their hard work on the Senior section; Prissy Satterfield and Carol Schmauch for their help at the Middle School, and all the advertisers and patrons without whose contributions this yearbook would not be possible. We would also like to especially thank our advisors, Mr. and Mrs. Harris, for their never ending aid and support.

We hope that this book presents an accurate account of the 1980-1981 school year and that it will help to bring memories of the way the year progressed. The Staff worked hard and devoted many hours to produce the 1981 POSTSCRIPT, and we hope you enjoy it.

Dear Elizabeth, im sorry we didn't have any classes together except choir, i was looking forward to seeing more of you this year. oh well,
 that's the breaks.
 We ~~ought~~ ought to get together and ride some
 this summer.
 Maybe, when i'm taking care of this job,
 you can ride Shane and i'll ride Smith.
 How's Marty?
 I hope you do well in all the snows. I know you'll be riding in
 this summer.
 I can't think,
 so have a great summer.

Love,
 PJ Nicks

Elizabeth, I'm glad we got to know each other a lot better 2nd period. Too bad I got out of 7th period English but that class is really better cause Mr.
 Justice (~~to be~~) is always in a better mood and David Parker hasn't got his bad breath
 all over the back of my neck. We had fun listening to Steve tell us what he thinks about the whole world. I'm glad he's moving away, he's weird! I hope I'll see you over the summer and I know I'll see you in French next year. Have a great summer!

Love, Barbara

Jim,

It's been a great year. Only 3 more
 'til we graduate!!!
 Thanks for making my first & last year at Country Day great. Have a nice summer & don't get into too much trouble!!

Love,
 Cathy

P.S. Good luck in the years to come!

Elizabeth,
 Too bad we don't have any classes to do next year. I hope we do next year. Have a trip this summer.

Love,
 John Watson

Elizabeth, Thank you for always being so nice and fun. I enjoyed knowing you at CCO, and I hope we don't lose track of each other when I go to Andover. I'm honored to be signing the yearbook of someone who has shaken British wand! Have a super summer!
 Grinly
 Bryce

Elizabeth,

It was great getting to know you this year.
Hope to see you over the summer!

I won't be here next year but I hope to see you anyway!

Sam Murphy

Elizabeth, ~~to~~

It was fun being in your English class. Maybe next year, if I'm here, we will have more classes together. You're a neat person and it's been fun.
Have a great summer.

Margaret

Elizabeth,

Sorry, we weren't in any classes together but we had some good times in lunch (1st + 2nd terms) + 8th period. Remember R.T.
(Queeras a $3 bill)? Remember when you + me + Debbie had a water fight + I spit on David Kinsey + Phil Hess? HA HA. Dynva was such a fun lady wasn't she? You are such a brain in French I was a stupid dummy. (pronounced stēwpid) Well, I gotta think of some thing else to remininse about → Remember Marcelles birthday and Delia's Birthday party (playing Round Robin + Jumping up + d

Don't forget all the good times + bad times we had in gym.

Dear Jeff baby was such a dear smelly soul + Herman, the athlete king + Patti + Coach Walton (good or bad?) Then there was the dreaded Mississippi River! (What a great place to go swimming)

Boy were y'all mean to me (but I didn't mind it too much) Remember that time I fell flat on my knee caps because you tripped me. That was on the gym floor - OUCH!

Well that's all I can think of to remember

Love Always
Ann

P.S. better see ya over the summer!
